

Dave Filchak

zuka music

Hey there, I'm Dave Filchak, a singer/songwriter hailing from the small city of Lethbridge, Alberta. I grew up listening to some of the greats like Jimmie Rogers, The Kingston Trio, Bill Haley, The Beatles, Jimi Hendrix, and Led Zeppelin, among many others. These artists have been a huge influence on my music and have helped shape my sound.

I now call Toronto home, but my roots are still firmly planted in the open prairies of my hometown. I've been writing songs since I can remember, and I've lived and played through all the great changes in modern music. I draw inspiration from a wide range of genres and artists, and I've turned these influences into a style that is uniquely my own.

People often ask me to describe my music, but I've always struggled with labels. To me, music is about feeling something, and whether you like it or not, it's that simple. I don't think I sound like anyone else, I just sound like me-Dave Filchak.

Over the years, I've had the opportunity to wear many hats in the music industry. I've been a touring musician, a studio owner, and an engineer, mixing and producing singles and albums for many Canadian artists. I've also released several albums of my own, including "End of the Line" when I was with the group Moses, two solo albums titled "Livin' on Laughs" and "Singles on Zuka Music", and an EP with Sharp Edges titled "Slice of Life" on Aquarius/Capitol. I've also released many single releases long before the current trend of single releases was popular.

Currently, I'm working on new material and remastering some of my older material for release in the coming months. I'm excited to announce that a new single and a full album celebrating the 40th anniversary of the 1983 Sharp Edges EP are in the works for this year. Stay tuned for more!

I'm so happy to be able to continue to share my music with the world and connect with fans who appreciate my unique sound. Thanks for taking the time to get to know me and my music.
